Orient Tradelink Ltd's Conceptualized Camapign "Radiant in Quest of Gold powered by Johnson Controls Hitachi" yielding excellent results.

A Campaign which was conceptualized and managed by Orient Tradelink Ltd for Shirdi Sai Baba Foundation (SSBF) keeping in View World Paralympics to be held in 2020 in Tokyo "Radiant in Quest of Gold Powered by Johnson Controls Hitachi" has started yielding fabulous success.

Sunder Singh Gurjar, who is a Para Athlete and among the 10 athletes adopted by SSBF under the campaign "Radiant in Quest of Gold Powered by Johnson Controls Hitachi" has clinched Gold Medal by coming at the first Spot in the Javelin throw at World Para Athletics Grand Prix recently concluded in Paris, France from 12-16 June, 2018. He clinched this positing with a throw of 61.36 meters and is way ahead by the second Rank holder (56.62).

Another Athlete under this campaign Sumit Kumar who came fourth also did very well in the competition. He had a throw of 55.50 meters and was approximately 7 meters ahead by the third Rank holder but lacked just 3 points to clinch the 3rd Position.

The Campaign "Radiant in Quest of Gold Powered by Johnson Controls Hitachi" has been conceptualized and managed by OTL for SSBF in which SSBF has adopted 10 Para Athletes. These 10 athletes were doing very well at National Level but were not able to perform at International competitions, that's OTL conceptualized this campaign so that these Athletes can be trained meeting international specifications and guidelines and get our National flag among the Top three positions which is the dream of OTL, SSBF and of every Indian Citizen.
