"BABA RAMSAA PEER"

Baba Ram Dev was a great Saint and Soul reformer from Rajasthan, and is considered by many, as the Re-incarnation of Lord Vishnu.

Born into a royal family of Raja Ajmal and Queen Naina Devi, the child prodigy is endowed with all Divine Qualities. His Obsession for horses, is the first evident, at an early age of 6 years. He incessantly pleads to his parents for an horse and acceding to his irresistible pleas and remonstrations an horse made of royal cloth, is presented to him by local tailor Vrinda. The young divine lad sits on the said horse and flies into oblivion.

During his earthly sojourn, Ram Devji, Travels only on the back of a white horse and his icon, is assuaged with the symbols like horse, sword and shield, as is evident in all available literatures and also on all photo frames and pictures at the "SAMADHI" Site in Ram Dev Deora in Jodhpur Rajasthan. He wages a relentless war, sitting on his trademark white horse, with other horsemen, against his oppressive, tyrant brother-in-law Vijay Singh and rescues his sister Sugna in distress. He travels far and wide on the back of his white horse, to uplift the poor and downtrodden people and offers solace and hope to them. His occult powers not only enchants his followers but also draws the attention of learned "PIRS" living in middle East who come to Rajasthan to test his magical powers the said "PIRS" were shocked and surprised, when RamDevji brings life into a dead man, bitten by a snake, by calling upon the transgressing snake, to appear and bite at the spot, it had earlier bitten, The resurrection of the dead, brings a smile of recognition on the forces of the holy "PIRS" Who names him as "BABA RAMDEV PIR".

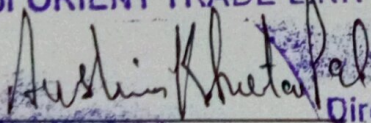

"BABA RAMDEV PIR" NOW CALLED AS
"BABA RAMSAA PEER"
