About the Movie

- The Film “Baba Ramsaa Peer” is an historical epic based on a renowned saint of Rajasthan – Baba Ramsaa Peer.
- Aushim Khetarpal, who has produced the “Presidential Award” winning film “Shirdi sai Baba” is the producer of this film, he plays a dual role of a producer as well as an actor in the film. He’ll be seen portraying the central character of Baba Ramsaa Peer along with Actress Gracy Singh.
- Baba Ramsaa Peer was a 14th Century saint who was the first to spread the message of Hindu-Muslim unity.

About the Movie

- Hindus lovingly called him “Baba” and Muslims called him Peer, he was respected by both the sects. Baba was christened with this name by five Persian peers who had visited India in this era.
- The film has been shot in Mumbai, Jodhpur, Jaipur and Roncha village where Baba rests in his Samadhi.
- The Music has a mix of Folk Music which is significantly in Gujarati, Rajasthani and Hindi which is likely to touch the audience soul.

Baba Ramsaa Peer

- His occult powers not only enchants his followers but also draws the attention of learned “PIRS” living in middle East who come to Rajasthan to test his magical powers.
- “PIRS” were shocked and surprised, when Ram Devji brings life into a dead man, bitten by a snake, by calling upon the transgressing snake, to appear and bite at the spot , it had earlier bitten, The resurrection of the dead, brings a smile of recognition on the forces of the holy “PIRS” Who names him as “BABA RAMDEV PIR”.
