Diorama International Film Festival Successfully concluded on 20th Jan, 2019 with an Award Ceremony

Diorama Film festival wherein Orient Tradelink Ltd has invested concluded successfully on January 20th, 2019.

As Per Mr. Aushim Khetarpal the MD of Orient Tradelink Ltd, the company which took 20 percent stake and the exclusive Marketing rights in Diorama International film festival "This was the strategic and tactical move done by the company to reach the international market. This move has helped us in talking to many distributors all across the world who participated in the Film Bazaar – one part of film Festival. We met many distributors and to our surprise we got to know that the type of Inventory OTL is having, there is a huge demand of the same in many countries". This has opened a total new market altogether for the company, our inventory will be sold their on Digital platforms and country specific markets.

After signing the MoU of taking 20% stake, taking the exclusive marketing rights and conducting the film festival, the revenues from the same are expected to double and triple in the coming years from the Film festival itself. Apart from this a total new market wherein company can sell its current inventories and even have a joint venture internationally to produce something big. The talks for the same have already started and we hope those will fructify in a beneficial manner as per the policies and vision of the company.

The success of the Diorama Film Festival can be ascertained by just looking few facts that the festival was covered by more than 50 news dailies i.e. Hindustan times, Times of India, Business Standard, The Hindu, Millennium Post, New Indian express, National Herald, The Global Times, The Statesman, Guardian, Mail Today, The Pioneer, The Week, Quint, India Today, PTI, ANI, UNI, UNI Varta and IANS to name a few.
